

President's Address

Fellow citizens of the Caribbean and the world greetings from the faculty, staff and students of the Caribbean Nazarene College situated in the beautiful Santa Cruz valley of Trinidad and Tobago.

Having been established in 1951 by the missionary Rev. Raymond Miller, the Nazarene Training College of that era has continued to evolve. From providing quality education for only the ministries in the Church of the Nazarene the College has more recently metamorphosed as a multi-disciplinary higher education institution. While maintaining our Christian philosophy of giving our utmost for the His(God's) highest, as an accredited institution committed to, "Quality Holistic Higher Education", we now offer in addition to our theology, degrees in psychology and counselling, human resource management and social work among others. In this respect we serve a diversity of Christian and non-Christian individuals and groups.

As the 13th president of the Caribbean Nazarene College, my wife Marcelle and I are pleased to serve you in this capacity. Propelled by a vision of God causing Aaron's rod (Numbers 17:1-8) to bloom supernaturally by his intervention, we continue to embrace the promise of a budding, blossoming, fruit-bearing Caribbean Nazarene College. By God's help the future of our College is like the tree planted by rivers of water producing fruit in its season.

In preparation for that season of greater fruitfulness, the leadership of the college is seeking to continually expand our curriculum, commence online studies and establish satellite centres in other Caribbean territories. With enhanced marketing, continued upgrading of our technological and physical infrastructure and the greater involvement of the alumni and friends, we are confident that the quality of our education offering will attract more students to the Caribbean Nazarene College despite the many challenges facing higher education in the Caribbean.

I invite you to join us on this exciting, yet challenging adventure of faith. We at the Caribbean Nazarene College are committed to quality education in a Christian environment. It is our remit that by the grace of God our graduates will be well equipped to serve with distinction wherever they go and that their stewardship will reflect the biblical values enshrined in our philosophy of education.

On the behalf of all of us at the Caribbean Nazarene College best wishes to you our friends and stakeholders. Continue to pray for us as we aspire to give, "our utmost for His highest".

Rev. Dr. Orlando Seale, CBE
